DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Herz, (U.S. Pat # 5,758,257).

according to an user attribute and/or state of information utilization and the basic information selection taste data of the specific user is met by the disclosure of Herz, (col. 11, lines 45-67; col. 12, lines 11-25; col. 13, lines 55-67; col. 14, lines 10-20). The above-cited passages of Herz teach developing an initial user profile based on demographic data and the customer's response to a questionnaire. The customer profile is updated as it is clustered with a group of similar customers, (col. 30, lines 10-35). Herz meets the additionally claimed feature of retrieving information suiting the specific user based upon an initial user model, (col. 14, lines 50-67; col. 22, lines 57-67).

Considering claims 2-6 & 8-14, the claimed features read on the disclosure of Herz, which teaches using various algorithms to update and refine a customer's profile, (col. 23, lines 60-67; col. 24, lines 1-55; col. 26, lines 29-40; col. 26, lines 51-60).

Considering claim 7, the claimed information retrieval apparatus comprises elements, which correspond with subject matter mentioned above in the rejection of claim 1, and are likewise analyzed.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's claims.
